Vermentino Del Maule 2023

The vineyards are located at the dry coastal area of the Loncomilla Valley, only irrigated with winter rains originate, very low yields of grapes.

The terroir is expressed in mature wines, concentrated and elegant with a natural acidity that achieves the perfect balance to withstand a long evolution in bottle.

Del MAULE is a unique line of wines, remarkable in their uniqueness to Chile and in their vibrant personality. Born from centuries-old vines imported from Italy, they vineyards are now flourishing in their new home in the dry-farmed Maule Valley.
